

Dear All

Join us to worship our great God this Sunday.

Notices for the coming week are listed below.

Clive Bailey

We are pleased to report Clive has come through his operation and is recovering well. The family thank you all for your prayers and support.

The Minister

Iain has been diagnosed with haemochromatosis-he has too much iron in his blood! The treatment will take up to 6 months but he will continue in the ministry during this time

For the remainder of this year the Lord's Supper will be celebrated on the second Sunday of the month. Our provisional date for the first service at The Barracks is Sunday 13/10/19.
Kind regards

Allan
